

General Exhibitor Terms and Conditions of FIRE&FOOD Verlag GmbH, Baintd (hereinafter: Organizer)

1. Application

The application for admission to the event is made by sending in the completed and legally binding signed application form. The exact listing or visual material of the offer and the stand design must be enclosed with the application for admission. Only the listed goods may be offered and sold at the fair after admission. The General Exhibitor Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to have been accepted as legally binding after signature on the application form. In case of non-compliance, the organizer reserves the right to exclude exhibitors from future fairs.

2. Admission

The decision on the admission of exhibitors and exhibits shall be made by the organizer at his discretion. Admission to participate shall be granted by written confirmation of order. The admission granted is not transferable to third parties. It shall apply exclusively to the admitted exhibitor and the admitted products.

3. Gastronomic offers

Food and beverages may only be offered if they were included in the application for admission and are approved by the organizer.

4. Terms of payment

The stand rental is due in full 10 days after receipt of the invoice. Timely payment is a prerequisite for occupation of the stand.

5. Withdrawal by the exhibitor

If the exhibitor withdraws from the contract after it has been confirmed by the organizer, the exhibitor shall pay 25 % of the agreed stand rental up to four weeks before the start of the event. A later withdrawal obliges the exhibitor to pay the entire invoice amount.

6. Subletting

Subletting the exhibition space in whole or in part is not permitted. If several exhibitors intend to rent a stand space together, all parties involved must submit an application for admission to the organizer. A main exhibitor must be named.

7. Space allocation

Space will be allocated by FIRE&FOOD Verlag GmbH according to its concept, taking into account local conditions. Any wishes expressed in the registration will be taken into account as far as possible.

8. Stand design

All materials used must be flame retardant (class B1). The design of the stand must correspond to the overall concept of the event. The design should be stylish and imaginative. The visitor should be attracted by the exhibited goods. The use of large advertising banners, posters, flags, etc. is prohibited. Flyer advertising in and in front of the exhibition grounds is prohibited.

9. Opening and sales hours

The opening and sales hours are binding for all exhibitors during the fair. The stand must be operated for the entire duration of the event.

10. Delivery and removal of exhibits

The daily delivery of goods must be completed at least one hour before the start of the event. Vehicles must then leave the premises.

11. Operation of the stand

The exhibitor is responsible for obtaining the necessary official permits and for paying the relevant taxes. The operation of vehicles, machines, loudspeaker systems, music and photo presentations is strictly prohibited or must be agreed with the organizer.

12. Dismantling and return of the exhibition space

The exhibitor is liable for any damage to the exhibition space provided. The exhibition space shall be returned in the condition in which it was accepted. Stands, exhibits, rubbish, etc. not removed after the date set for dismantling shall be removed by the organizer at the exhibitor's expense.

13. Cleaning

The organizer is responsible for the general cleaning of the exhibition area. Each exhibitor is responsible for cleaning his own stand area and removing any rubbish.

14. Liability, warranty

The organizer is only liable for intent and gross negligence. This also applies to his employees and his own selection and monitoring negligence. In particular, damage caused by fire, explosion, violent attacks, storms, other forms of force majeure or by theft, burglary, failure of supply systems and similar causes shall be excluded. The exhibitor shall be liable in accordance with the statutory provisions. The exhibitor shall provide proof of appropriate exhibitor and/or public liability insurance.

15. Force majeure

15.1 Cancellation of the event

If the trade fair cannot take place for reasons of force majeure, no claims can be made against the organizer. If the event is cancelled or interrupted due to force majeure, the organizer shall be released from his obligation to perform. Any payments already made by exhibitors shall be refunded.

15.2 Events that have started

If the organizer has to shorten or cancel an event that has started due to force majeure, the exhibitor shall not be entitled to a refund or a waiver of the stand rental fee.

15.3 Further claims

Any further claims, irrespective of the reason, against the organizer in the cases of sections 15.1 and 15.2 are excluded.

16. Data protection

We collect, use and process your personal data for the purpose of establishing, implementing and processing your contractual relationship with the organizer. Your data will be used within the framework of the statutory provisions and exclusively for the defined purposes.

17. Final provisions

This contract is governed exclusively by German law. Unless otherwise stipulated in the special event conditions, these general conditions shall govern the contractual relationships of the parties conclusively. There are no verbal ancillary agreements; any terms and conditions of business of the exhibitor shall not be included in the contract. Amendments or supplements to these General Terms and Conditions for Events must be made in writing; this also applies to the cancellation of the written form clause itself. If the exhibitor is a merchant within the meaning of the German Commercial Code, a legal entity under public law or a special fund under public law or has its place of jurisdiction outside the Federal Republic of Germany, it is agreed that Ravensburg shall be the exclusive place of jurisdiction for all disputes in connection with the event. This also applies to legal dunning proceedings.

18. Severability clause

Should individual provisions of these General Terms and Conditions be invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The invalid provision shall be amended in such a way that the intended purpose is achieved.
